

Cesar Chavez Red Carpet Gala

The special screening took place at the Maya Cinemas in Salinas, California on March 30, 2014.

Angelica Rojas BS, Victoria Montoya SBHF Board Member & Member of the National Advisory Council on Migrant Health, Carina Chavez Deputy District Director of Rep. Sam Farr

Cesar Chavez Red Carpet Gala

The movie, which opened nationwide in 100 cities on the weekend of March 28, depicts the life and struggles of Cesar Chavez, the legendary founder of the United Farm Workers of America, as he led thousands of farm workers in nonviolent protests, marches, strikes and unprecedented boycotts worldwide.

United Farmworkers Walk in Salinas, CA

Cesar Chavez Red Carpet Gala

After the special screening a panel discussion with the United Farm Workers Foundation (UFW) leaders took place.

Cesar Chavez Red Carpet Gala

The United Farm Workers (UFW) foundation organized a VIP red carpet reception at the National Steinbeck Center in Salinas California.

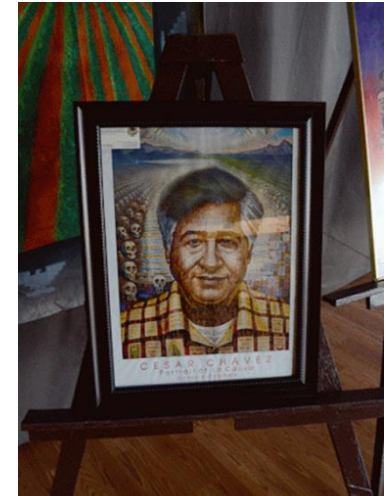

Angelica Rojas BS, Victoria Montoya SBHF Board Member & Member of the National Advisory Council on Migrant Health, Ramon Salinas Monterey County Board of Supervisors

Red Carpet Reception

Special Memorial for Cesar Chavez

Emilia and Teresa Chavez Delgado (Cesar Chavez Granddaughter)

